Last summer Mr. Doby visited Sumter and spent several months in the county visiting relatives.

Harley-Rice.

Appleton, Nov. 13.—On Wednesday November 5, at noon, a large concourse of friends assembled at historic old Cave church to witness the marriage ceremony of the Rev. Joseph Sheldon Rice of Sumter and Miss Abbie Ruth Harley of Thomas.

The church was decorated with green and white under the skillful supervision of Mrs. Joseph Cullom. Seven arches were erected in front of the chancel, covered with white, richly adorned with green, introducing white chrysanthemums regularly interspersed. A huge bell of white chrysanthemums was suspended from the middle arch under which the bride and groom stood. The chancel was an array of white, bearing asparagus ferns, surmounted by an imposing row of pines. In the rear of the altar was a most beautiful pyramid of ferns in front of which were stationed the two officiating ministers, the Rev. E. Z. James of Appleton and the Rev. C. F. Outlaw of Brunson. Ferns prevailed in the intervening avenues on each side of the chancel.

The organ was arrayed in white embellished with green decorations, surmounted by a beautiful sprygeria fern. About 30 minutes before the bridal party arrived, a solo, "I Love You Truly," was rendered by Mrs. W. I. Johns, accompaniment executed by Miss Gladys Johns. Following this was "Oh, Promise Me," a rendition by Miss Willie Best of Kline. Immediately the peals of the organ reverberated Mendelssohn's wedding march rendered by Miss Lillian Appleby while the bridesmaids and grooms-men marched imposingly up the aisles in the following manner: Miss Katherine Newman and Eric Barnes, both of Augusta, came up opposite aisles, crossing each other. Likewise Miss Melissa Morse of Augusta and Clarice Smith of Ellenton, Miss Lula Calhoun of Americus, Ga., and Laurie Hartzog of Allendale, Miss Ramelle Rice of Allendale and Robert Harley, brother of the bride, Miss Sara Harley, maid of honor, came up the middle aisle, preceding the bride entering with her brother, Theodore Harley. They were met by the groom accompanied by his brother, Willie Rice.

The bride was attired in her going-away coat suit of brown eponge with hat, gloves and shoes to correspond, carrying an exquisite shower bouquet of bride's roses and maidenhair fern. The ceremony was imposing, during which Miss Appleby, who presided at the organ, softly played "To a Wild Rose." The bride and groom left the altar through unique gates, arranged in the middle aisle, followed by five couples of maids and groomsmen and the two ushers, Theo. Harley and Dave Rice, while the peals of the organ resounded strains of the Lohengrin bridal chorus.

The bridal party and friends repaired to "The Oaks," the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. M. E. Harley. On entering the veranda each guest advanced to a table decorated with autumn foliage, presided over by Miss Edna Rice, who served fruit punch.

At 2:30 p. m., a feast was served, the color scheme of green and gold being carried out.

The party left via C. & W. C. at 4 p. m., to attend the Annual Christian convention in Brunson. From there they will spend several days with relatives and friends in Augusta and Columbia. They will be at home after the 26th in Sumter where Mr. Rice has a pastorate in the First Christian church.

TEACHERS SHOW INTEREST.

INTERESTING ADDRESS GIVEN BY PROF. W. K. TATE THURSDAY EVENING.

Sessions Held in Hampton School Building Friday Morning—Talks Made Thursday Afternoon by Supt. Pitts, Miss Frayser and Miss Lemmon—Teachers Organize.

The feature of the Thursday afternoon session were the talks by Supt. James L. Pitts of Laurens County on the Benefits Derived from a County School Journal; by Miss Mary Lemmon, who outlined her plans of school work for the year, and by Miss Mary E. Frayser of the department of economics of Winthrop College, on The Enrichment and Vitalization of School Course by the Addition of Domestic Science and Manual Training. Thursday evening Prof. W. K. Tate gave a most interesting lecture with kinetoscopic views of schools, showing what they had been and what they are.

Friday morning the exercises commenced at 9 o'clock, when the teachers gathered in the chapel for opening services. This was conducted by the Rev. D. M. McLeod. After these services the teachers were invited to visit the city schools and observe their methods of teaching. At noon the teachers again assembled in the auditorium of the Hampton school building to hear an address by Prof. W. H. Hand, State high school inspector. Prof. Hand spoke on the waste in the schools and how it might be remedied.

Mr. Pitts in his talk told of the many benefits derived by the teachers and schools of Laurens county from having a school journal and advised the teachers of this county to organize for the publishing of such a journal here. He told of the work which was necessary in preparing the journal and gave a very interesting story of how the work was done in his county.

Miss Lemmon told of her work during the past year, when she was first engaged for this purpose and then went on to tell of what she proposed to do during this year with the help of the teachers. Her plans proved a very interesting feature to the teachers whom she will visit whenever she has the opportunity to do so and with their co-operation no doubt many improvements can be made in the methods of teaching in the county.

Miss Mary E. Frayser made one of her usual interesting talks, being one of the few persons who can see and show others the beauty and necessity of manual training and domestic science as a study in the rural schools. Her remarks were heard with the greatest attention by the teachers and others present.

Thursday night Prof. Tate was at his best. Showing what improvements had been made in various places he encouraged the teachers of Sumter county to go out and do likewise. He made a very interesting talk as the views were shown.

The address of Prof. W. H. Hands was one of the most interesting which has been delivered to the teachers during their conference. Prof. Hand spoke on the "Leaks in the Public Schools." He pointed out how schools did not do the work which they ought to do because of various deficiencies, sometimes in trustees, sometimes in the teachers and for various other reasons and showed how these leaks in many cases might be stopped. His was a practical talk and filled with good advice to the teachers.

Dr. J. LaBruce Ward of the State Board of Health, made a short talk on the defects of children which prevented them from doing the work which was required of them. He pointed out the various diseases which the children might have, which would hinder them from taking interest in their studies and from learning their lessons. His address was also a practical one and was heard with attention.

TEACHERS ELECT OFFICERS.

MR. C. A. McBRIDE OF BOYS' HIGH SCHOOL CHOSEN PRESIDENT.

Meeting Comes to a Close After Two Days of Interesting Discussions—Officers of Rural School Association Also Chosen—List of Teachers in County.

The last session of the Sumter County Teachers' Conference was held Friday afternoon at the Hampton school building and proved to be as interesting as the sessions which had preceded it. It was well attended and closed with the formation of the County Teachers' Association and of the Sumter County Rural School Improvement Association for the ensuing year.

The officers elected for the County Teachers' Association were President, C. A. McBride, principal boys' high school; vice-president, Miss E. W. McLean, superintendent primary department of the city schools; secretary, F. S. Smith, Mayesville school; treasurer, Miss Pearl Napier, Dalzell school.

The officers chosen for the School Improvement Association were President, Miss Copeland Smith, Mayesville school; vice-president, Miss Tully Atkins, Argyle school; secretary and treasurer, Miss Lila McLean, Oswego school.

A committee consisting of Mr. John Kelly of the Rembert school, Miss Dorothy Napier of the Dalzell school and Miss E. W. McLean of the city schools was appointed to work with the county superintendent of education in the establishment of a county school journal. This committee will meet in the near future and discuss the advisability of publishing a school journal in this county.

On Friday afternoon Miss Mary Lemmon, county tomato club organizer, discussed with the teachers in a general way the tomato club work in the county. Miss Edith Parrot, State agent of tomato clubs, was unable to be present to lead in this discussion, as had been planned, but Miss Lemmon took her place in a very efficient manner.

County Farm Demonstrator J. Frank Williams told of the work of the boys' corn clubs in the county and of the plans for school demonstration farms which would be conducted in connection with several of the schools. His talk proved an especially interesting one, as a number of the schools in the county are preparing to have the demonstration farm conducted in connection with their schools.

Miss E. W. McLean led in a general discussion of reading in the primary grades and other problems in the primary department of the school.

It was decided to discuss the County Field Day at the first meeting of the County Teachers' Association, which will be held sometime in December.

The Teachers' Conference has been fraught with interest for the county teachers and practically every teacher has been present at some or all of the meetings. The attendance was very gratifying to those in charge of the conference and much enthusiasm was shown by the teachers in the work of the conference. Besides teachers many of the trustees and patrons attended the meetings. It is thought that much good will be accomplished by the meeting, especially in the drawing of the teachers into closer relation with each other in their daily work.

Marriage License Record.

A license to marry was issued Saturday morning to Henry Bradley and Hester Flagler of Elloree.

Messrs. George D. Levy, Robert D. Graham and E. I. Reardon, the committee from the Chamber of Commerce that went to Florence several days ago to attend the fair over there were told that a goodly number of Florence county, and other Pee Dee section people will be in Sumter for Shriner's Day.

An Explanation.

With the general public there seems to be quite a lot of confusion in distinguishing between W. B. Burns & Son and the Burns Hardware Co.

For further information of the public, we will state that W. B.
